CONSULTING SERVICES AGREEMENT

Global-IP Cayman ("Client") hereby enters into this Consulting Services Agreement ("Agreement") effective as of March 26, 2019 ("Effective Date") to retain Mercury Public Affairs LLC, a Delaware limited liability company having a business address at 200 Varick Street, Suite 600, New York, New York U.S.A. 10014 ("Consultant"), as an independent contractor to perform the services described herein. Client and Consultant may each be referred to as a "Party" herein, and collectively may be referred to as "Parties."

1. The Services. Client and Consultant agree that Client hereby retains Consultant to render consulting services to the Client as specified on Schedule 1 attached hereto. In addition, subject to any limitations set forth on Schedule 1, Consultant will provide such other reasonable consulting services as the Parties shall mutually agree to in writing (together with the consulting services identified on Schedule 1, the "Services") during the Term (as described below).

2. Payment Terms. Client and Consultant agree that Consultant is entitled to receive and Client shall pay the fees and expenses set forth on Schedule 2, which is incorporated at this point, and which may be modified from time to time as mutually agreed to in writing. Payment in full of fees and expenses shall be made to Consultant within thirty (30) days after an invoice is rendered. For ongoing fees and expenses, Client will be billed on the 1st of every month unless the Agreement begins mid month. In such cases, all expenses will be due in full as billed and all fees will be billed on a prorated basis in the first and last month of the Agreement. In the event that Client does not pay such fees and expenses per the invoices within the specified timeframe, Consultant may suspend provision of Services until payment is made. All payments made by Client shall be without deduction or offset.

3. Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and will continue in effect until June 30, 2019 (the "Initial Term"). On or before the expiration of the Initial Term, Client shall have the right to terminate the Agreement by providing written notice to the Consultant. If Client does not terminate the Agreement prior to the expiration of the Initial Term as provided herein, the term of this Agreement shall automatically extend on a month-to-month basis thereafter (the "Additional Term"), unless terminated by either Party on thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other Party (the Initial Term along with the Additional Term, if any, shall be referred to as the "Term").

4. Client Contact. Client shall designate to Consultant, from time to time in writing, the primary contact for reporting and billing purposes. Contacts are identified on Schedule 3. Consultant shall keep the primary contact for reporting purposes regularly informed as to the status of the performance of the Services in accordance with this consulting Agreement.

5. Independent Contractor Status. Consultant agrees that it is an independent contractor and not an agent or employee of Client and Consultant will not hold itself out as such an agent or employee. Consultant has no authority or responsibility to enter into any contracts on behalf of Client.

6. Confidential Information/Trade Secrets. During the course of the performance of the Services, Consultant may have access to, have disclosed to it, or otherwise obtain information which Client identifies in writing or through labeling as being of a confidential and/or proprietary nature (the "Confidential Information"). Consultant shall use such Confidential Information solely in performance of its obligations under this Agreement. Information shall not be deemed confidential if such information is: (i) already known to Consultant free of any restriction at the time it is obtained; (ii) subsequently learned from an independent third party free of any restriction; or (iii) available publicly.

7. Non-Exclusive/Performance. Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that Consultant will, during the Term and thereafter, be entitled to perform and render services or conduct operations of a nature similar or dissimilar to the services or operations performed for Client under this Agreement on behalf of itself or other entities in the same or similar business as Client and nothing contained herein will preclude Consultant from doing so. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 7 to the contrary, Consultant represents and warrants that throughout the Term it will devote such personnel and resources in the performance of the Services as it deems reasonably necessary to perform such Services hereunder diligently and conscientiously.

8. Indemnification.

(a) Each Party will indemnify and hold harmless the other Party, its principals, employees, officers, and agents, (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all liabilities, losses, claims, demands, actions, judgments, costs, and expenses including but not limited to attorneys' fees, arising out of or resulting from any negligence, gross negligence, or willful misconduct by the indemnifying Party, its employees, officers, directors, and agents.

(b) Each Party's indemnification obligations set forth herein are conditioned upon the Indemnified Parties: (i) giving prompt written notice of any claim, action, suit or proceeding for which the Indemnified Parties are seeking indemnity; (ii) granting control of the defense and settlement of the action to the indemnifying Party; and (iii) reasonably cooperating with the indemnifying Party with respect to the defense of the action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnified Parties may, at their option and expense, participate in the defense or settlement of any claim, action, suit or proceeding covered by this Section 8.

(c) In no event shall either Party be liable to the other Party for indemnification as set forth in Section 8(a) in an amount greater than the amount of compensation actually paid to Consultant by Client for the Services pursuant to this Agreement.

9. Publicity. Neither Party will use the other Party's name, logo, trademarks or service marks in any advertising, publicity releases, or any other materials without that Party's prior written approval.

10. Assignment. Neither Party will assign this Agreement or otherwise transfer, subcontract or delegate any of its rights and/or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other and any attempt to do so will be void.

11. Notices. Any notice or other communication required or which may be given hereunder will be in writing and either delivered personally or mailed, by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, or sent via email, and will be deemed given when so delivered personally, or if mailed,

72 hours after the time of mailing as follows:

Either Party may change the persons and address to which notices or other communications are to be sent to it by giving written notice of any such change in the manner provided herein for giving notice.

12. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York and the United States of America applicable to agreements negotiated, executed, and performed entirely within the State of New York and the United States of America, without regard to its conflicts of laws rules.

13. No Liability of Consultant. Consultant shall bear no liability to Client for loss or damage in connection with advice or assistance by Consultant given in good faith performance of the Services.

14. Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute between the Parties to this Agreement concerning the terms of this Agreement or matters related thereto, the Parties will first attempt as a condition precedent to further action to settle and resolve said dispute amicably and by agreement within thirty (30) days of a receipt of notice of a dispute by one Party to the other Party. Each Party shall deal in good faith through representatives authorized and empowered to resolve the dispute. In the event that said dispute cannot be settled and resolved amicably as set out above, said dispute shall be resolved exclusively and finally through arbitration as set out in this Section 14 and subject to and in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

(a) All disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be finally settled and resolved under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce as are at present in force;

(b) Three arbitrators shall be appointed in accordance with said Rules;

(c) The arbitration shall take place in Washington, DC, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both Parties to this Agreement;

- (d) The language of the arbitration shall be English;
- (e) Each Party shall produce documents originally drafted in English without translation, and any document drafted in a language other than English must be translated into English, properly certified as accurate, with said translation attached to the original document;
- (f) All findings, comments, orders, and the arbitration decision and award itself, in addition to all documents and communications of every sort used in the arbitration shall be in English;
- (g) The arbitrators may award compensatory damages under the terms of this Agreement, but in no event shall the arbitrators award special, consequential, or punitive damages;
- (h) Each Party shall initially bear its own expenses, including all costs and attorneys' fees, in connection with presenting its case for arbitration, and the Parties shall share equally in the costs and expenses of the arbitration process itself, including, but not limited to, the cost of the arbitrators; however, in the final award, the arbitral tribunal as described herein shall set and fix the costs of the arbitration and shall decide which Party or Parties shall bear and pay the costs and in what proportions;
- (i) Each Party irrevocably waives any right it has or may have to a jury trial concerning any dispute concerning this Agreement; and
- (j) jurisdiction and venue for the enforcement of any arbitration award in connection herewith shall be the State of New York and the United States of America.

15. General.

- (a) No amendments or modifications shall be binding upon either Party unless made in writing and signed by both Parties.
- (b) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all previous agreements, promises, proposals, representations, understandings, and negotiations, whether written or oral, between the Parties respecting the subject matter hereof.
- (c) In the event any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will be unimpaired, and the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision will be replaced by a provision which, being valid, legal and enforceable, comes closest to the intention of the Parties underlying the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision.
- (d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.
- (e) The Parties hereto agree to perform any further acts and to execute and deliver any further documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

(f) The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and will not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(g) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, in no event will Consultant be liable to Client (whether for damages, indemnification or any other claim) for an amount greater than the amount of compensation (and not reimbursement for expenses) actually paid to Consultant by Client for the Services.

(h) Consultant shall coordinate with third parties as specified by Client in writing from time to time including, but not limited to, Client's counsel from the law firm Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton and members of the Brunswick Group, subject to Client's requirements for appropriate confidentiality agreements to be confirmed or executed before Consultant reveals Client's confidential information to third parties.
